A Texas Lawyer Tells a Strange Story of the Alleged Brutality of a Sheriff.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 13.-Governor Sayers

I enclose five more dimes for George Dewey s daigo County to protect six Mexican prisoners, said to be in danger of lynching.

Lawyer W. N. Parks, attorney for the prisoners, asked the Governor to take that action. Parks says Sheriff John Closeuer, of Hidalgo County, caused the Mexicans to be arrested, denied them an opportunity to give bail or see friends or counsel, and took three of the men. Lazaro Casares from the jail, hung them by the neck and thumbs and otherwise tortured them in an attempt to extort confessions from the prisoners.

The lawyer said when he finally obtained access to the men their necks were torn and lacerated, and they had been in confinement since Monday last without knowing the charges against them.
